

Doctoral Degree

We look for persons who create new theories and expressions supported by originality and social significance, who aim at sharing study results to the society, and who have high motivation to continue contributing to the society as advanced experts who explore academic knowledge and skills on art independently from the international standpoint of view.

The attribute and ability which are expected with the persons are as follows: having broad perspective and artistic power of idea; having problem consciousness and are working on issues actively and flexibly; having rich expressiveness and deep questioning mind into knowledge.

Master's Degree

We look for persons who have deep and broad academic knowledge and skills on art, who aim at performing actively in their respective fields as advanced experts, and who have good motivation to become self-sustaining as artists, researchers, and educators who contribute to the society.

The attribute and ability which are expected with the persons are as follows: having knowledge on art, and humanities, society and natural science widely; having posture to tackle with things in subjective and systematic manner and to learn throughout their lives and discipline to tackle with creation and research work; collecting information adequately, and performing analysis and logical thinking; having skills and expressiveness required in the field of art as well as communication and presentation skills for conveying their creations and thoughts.

University of Art and Design

We look for persons who aim at performing actively in their respective fields as experts, and who have good motivation through art to contribute to the society and to become self-sustaining.

The attribute and ability which is expected with the persons are as follows: having free and flexible way of thinking on art; having eyes to observe and understand the subject well; having problem consciousness and a posture to consider by oneself; expressing individuality straightforwardly and openly.

College of Art and Design

We look for persons who aim at performing actively in their respective fields as experts, who have good motivation through art and design to contribute to the society and to become self-sustaining, who explore their own picture of the future positively, who have the attitude to observe and understand the whole society including themselves, and who express their individuality straightforwardly.